Beijing seeks back taxes from artist Ai Weiwei

BEIJING (AP) — Beijing tax authorities are seeking nearly $2 million in back taxes and fines from outspoken Chinese artist Ai Weiwei, who was released last week from nearly three months in detention, his close friend said Tuesday.

Ai was released on bail last Wednesday and Chinese authorities said he confessed to tax evasion and pledged to repay the money owed. His family has denied he evaded any taxes and activists have denounced the accusation as a false premise for detaining Ai, who spoke out against the authoritarian government and its repression of civil liberties.

The Beijing Local Taxation Bureau informed Ai that he owed around 5 million yuan ($770,000) in unpaid taxes and would be fined about 7 million yuan ($1.1 million) — totaling just over 12 million yuan ($1.85 million), said Beijing human rights lawyer Liu Xiaoyuan.

NASA confirms July 8 for last shuttle launch

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The last space shuttle launch ever is set for July 8.

NASA managers met at Kennedy Space Center on Tuesday and confirmed Friday, July 8, as the launch date for Atlantis. The 12-day mission will close out the 30-year shuttle program.

Atlantis will fly to the International Space Station with a year's worth of supplies. Four astronauts will be on board for this grand finale.

NASA spent the past week testing a new fuel valve that was installed in one of Atlantis' main engines to stop a leak. Technicians also X-rayed support brackets on the external fuel tank. Officials say everything looks good.

Launch time is 11:26 a.m. Huge crowds are expected.

Suicide blast starts battle in Afghanistan

KABUL, Afghanistan (AP) — At least one suicide bomber blew himself up inside a Western-style hotel in Kabul late Tuesday night and Afghan police who rushed to the scene fought other assailants with machine guns and rocket-propelled grenades.

Tracer rounds went up over the blacked-out Inter-Continental hotel, which is frequented by Afghan political leaders and foreign visitors. Associated Press reporters at the scene heard bursts of gunfire and saw shooting from the roof of the five-story building. Police ordered bystanders to lie on the ground for safety.

There was no immediate word from Afghan officials on casualties in the rare, nighttime attack in the Afghan capital. Taliban spokesman Zabihullah Mujahid claimed responsibility in a telephone call to the AP.
